

Download Adyar The International Headquarters Of The Theosophical Society

Declarations of the Theosophical Society * Three Objects of the Theosophical Society * Freedom of Thought * Freedom of The Society * Mission of The Society The Canadian Federation of the Theosophical Society is also known as the Canadian Theosophical Association Inc. and, along with 56 other countries, is part of the Theosophical Society, formed in New York, on the 17th of November 1875. International President in Sydney soon. Tim Boyd —The Four Minds at 3pm; Healing & the Healer at 6 pm The Theosophical Society was an organization formed in 1875 by Helena Blavatsky to advance Theosophy. The original organization, after splits and realignments, currently has several successors. Following the death of Blavatsky, competition within the Society between factions emerged, particularly among founding members and the organisation ...