The history of external colonisation of Africa can be divided into two stages: Classical antiquity and European colonialism. In popular parlance, discussions of colonialism in Africa usually focus on the European conquests that resulted in the Scramble for Africa after the Berlin Conference in the 19th century. Neocolonialism, neo-colonialism, or neo-imperialism is the practice of using capitalism, globalization and cultural imperialism to influence a developing country instead of the previous colonial methods of direct military control (imperialism) or indirect political control. Coined by the French philosopher Jean-Paul Sartre in 1956, it was ...Engage with the world through a highly regarded degree in MA Postcolonial Studies from SOAS, specialists in the study of Asia, Africa and the Middle East To find the semesters in which a course is most likely to be offered, refer to Browse Catalog in the Student Administration System.
